

Ralph A. Wurbs, Ph.D., P.E., is the Associate Director for Engineering of the Texas Water Resources Institute and a professor in the Environmental and Water Resources Engineering Division of the Zachry Department of Civil Engineering at Texas A&M University. He worked in the water resources development program of the Corps of Engineers for nine years prior to joining the TAMU faculty in 1980 and has continued throughout his career at TAMU to work closely with federal and state water agencies and consulting engineering firms.