PUBLIC SESSION OF THE BINATIONAL CORE GROUP
January 28, 2020

10:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. Pacific Time

Sala de Presidentes, Municipal Government Building
Blvd. Independencia 1350,
Zona Urbana Río Tijuana,
22320 Tijuana, B.C.

The International Boundary and Water Commission, United States and Mexico, extends an open invitation for the public to attend the public session of Meeting.01 of the Binational Core Group (BCG) of the Tijuana River Basin (TRB), to be held January 28, 2020, at 10 AM, in Tijuana, Baja California. Under Minute 320, signed on October 5, 2015, IBWC noted that governmental and non-governmental organizations in the United States and Mexico are interested in participating in a binational dialogue to identify joint cooperative opportunities on transboundary issues in the Tijuana River Basin. The Binational Core Group (BCG) was established and includes representatives of the Commission, federal, state, and local governments, and non-governmental organizations from both countries that are involved in matters addressed under Minute 320.

The BCG-Meeting.01 will mark the consolidation of the structure agreed by the Commission to implement plans and programs aimed at solving, in a comprehensive and long-term manner, the problem of regional transboundary pollution, within the framework of Minute 320.
